Membership 2024

Please read the following terms & conditions of membership in full:

1. All club members are strongly advised to arrange their own personal accident insurance and horse owners should obtain third party insurance.
2. All instructors wishing to teach on the TRC grounds must furnish the TRC committee with a hard copy of their current insurance policy prior to any lessons taking place. Riders may not book lessons with an instructor unless this condition has been met.
3. I agree to help run events to ease the burden and facilitate more activities, competitions and the continued growth and development of our club.
4. I agree that if I have a medical condition that may affect my riding, I will inform the Club Secretary.
5. At Tinahely Riding Club we are committed to respecting and protecting your privacy. The information you provide on this form will be used solely for the purposes of communicating with you as a member of this club. As we are affiliated to the Association of Irish Riding Clubs (AIRC), if you have opted to be a member of the AIRC, your personal information will be shared with them in order to fulfil your AIRC membership benefits and/or services and they may share them with associates for the purpose of fulfilling your full membership benefits and/or services (i.e., insurance providers). I understand that if I do not provide my personal data, my membership cannot be registered with the club and the AIRC. We/AIRC will automatically contact you about your membership, for example, to ensure you receive your membership benefits, to tell you about news, activities and events. This includes sending you email updates, information on other membership benefits, and publishing competition times and results in the public domain. To see our privacy policy, go to www.airc.ie/privacy.
6. If I am accepted for membership, I agree to be bound by the rules of this club and the rules of the Association of Irish Riding Clubs. I also agree to be bound by the code of conduct for this club and also the Association of Irish Riding Clubs. I understand that membership of the club runs from 1st January to 31st December each year. I have read the data protection information and have given my consent, by signing below, to be contacted by the club and by AIRC for the purposes of my membership.

All persons making use of the TRC grounds are subject to the following Code of Conduct:

- All gates into and within the grounds are to be kept closed at all times.
- Considerate parking by all users is expected within the grounds, having due care and attention to other users and larger vehicles in the grounds.
- All lessons and schooling on the Cross Country Course must be booked in advance, no exceptions.
- Any damage noted within the grounds must be reported to the Committee.
- No dung is to be left in the car park or wash bay.
- Water in the wash bay is to be turned off when not in use.
- No rubbish to be left on the premises.
- All minors must be supervised by an appropriate adult or guardian at all times, whether on foot or on horseback, within the premises and grounds known as Tinahely Riding Club, Coolboy, County Wicklow.

DISCLAIMER

Horse riding is a risk sport; consequently, participation therein can lead to potential dangers. Save for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the organisers or anyone for whom they are in law responsible, neither the organisers of any Event to which these rules apply, nor Tinahely Riding Club, nor any agent, employee or representative of these bodies accepts any liability for any accident, loss, damage, injury or illness to horses, owners, athletes, spectators, land, cars, their contents and accessories or any other person or property whatsoever, whether caused by their negligence, breach of contract or in any other way whatsoever.

In signing below, I accept that if I fail to have any or have insufficient Personal Accident Insurance that in the event of an accident Tinahely Riding Club will not be liable to compensate me for any injury, loss or damage, howsoever sustained.

I, the undersigned am aware of the 'risk' involved in horse-riding and acknowledge and accept the risk involved and will not hold Tinahely Riding Club, their servants or agents responsible for any accident and subsequent injury, loss or damage, howsoever sustained.

Each year huge amounts of work go into the club by the committee and volunteers.

By signing up for membership below you are agreeing to volunteer to help through the year, to ease the burden, to facilitate more activities, competitions and events and to promote the continued growth and development of the Club.
